Richmond Borough President Says Jury May Act on Judge Tiernan's Advice.

BEGS TRACTION RELIEF

Hedley Tells Board of Estimate I. R. T. Can Worry Along a While on 5c. Fare.

The Beard of Estimate discontinued for a time yesterday its inquiry into the Interborough's finances after President Jrank Hodley had reiterated the request for a fare "from eight to ten cents," but said the company's financial condi-tion had so improved in recent weeks that it could pay obligations due July 5 and perhaps even get along until Jan-Immediately thereafter Borough President Van Name called upon the Board to save Mayor Hylan from indict-ment by a Staten Island Grand Jury and himself from being subpoensed by the same dread body by doing something for his constituents who have to walk beuse of the tieup on the surface lines. Mr. Van Name read a newspaper clipging containing a report of the charge to the Richmond county Grand Jury deered on Tuesday by County Judge J. Harry Tiernan, the purport of which Mr. Van Name believed to be that the Mayor, because he had permitted the surface negiect, might be indicted criminally by rend by Mr. Van Name, Judge Tiernan was quoted as directing the Grand Jury to "see what could be done along crim-inal lines if we cannot get any relief from our public officials or the civil branch of the court."

Judge Tiernan was then quoted as saying: "I do not care who the official be; I do not care what his title is; do not care what power he possess der the law, if he is false in the per formance of his duty he is guilty milfeasance in office and should be rethat was the case it was up to the Grand Jury to do l's duty.

Judge Likely Means Hylan.

Mr. Van Name said he did not think Judge Tiernan referred to himself, but thought he meant Mayor Hylan Peunders were filed January 16, he said, proposed that the board inquire first

Mr. Curran, seconded by Mr. La Guardia, who presided as acting Mayor, epiled that the motion to which Comptroller Craig referred was hastily drawn and they needed time to consider it. For the next few minutes arwhen Mr. Van Name called upon Commissioner of Accounts Hirschfield to give expert testimony about the Rich-and County Grand Jury.

Craig Explains Implication.

Comptroller Craig believed the charge implied not only that, as Mr. Van Name said, the Board of Estimate committee a crime in failing to consider the petiuary, but that the officers and directors of the company had committed a crime. Mr. Van Name was evidently perturbed because, he said, "they have a habit of finding indictments down there." "I don't intend to be bluffed by them," Faid Comptroller Crafg.

Mr. Curran's motion was lost and the question was adjourned until to-day. Borough President Van Name introthat the Board authorize an increase in fare from five to ten cents, including free transfers on all lines of the Staten Island Midiand Railroad Company, Mr. Van Name alone voted for his resolution, other members of the board holding in substance that the board had no authority to settle the question offhand in invested in the Interborough by private capital and the surrender of the contract and leave the question of fares to the city when the surrender takes place. Mr. Hedrey said of course such a posal would have to be submitted to the stockholders, and James L. Quacken-bush, attorney for the Interborough, said the constitution prevented the city buying a single share of stock.

"Don't worry about the constitution," sald Mr. Craig. Statements were filed showing that August Belmont and August Belmont &
